

And Now for New Curtains and Draperies in the Home

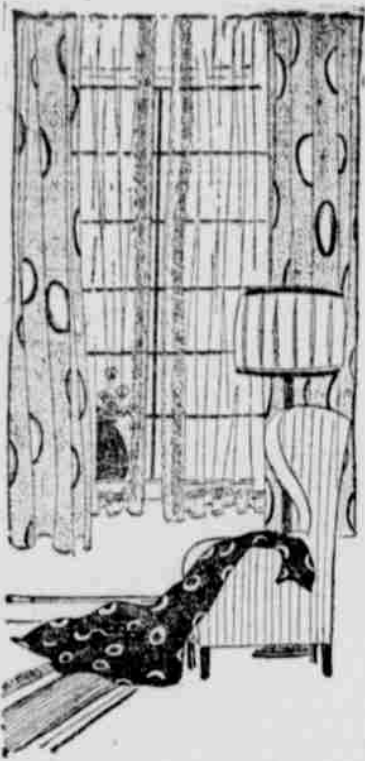

Windows without curtains or draperies look as bare as an office building. They seem to lose their homelike appearance, and while during the summer months draperies were dispensed with to make the room cool, the coming of autumn makes it necessary that you look to making your home cozy and comfortable. Our new Fall Curtains, Draperies, Cretonnes, etc., are now at their best and await your approval. In making your selection here, you are sure of getting the very latest and prettiest designs at the lowest possible prices. Let us show you.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Special sale waists Saturday at the Vaughan Store.
Dance in Howland hall Saturday night. Carroll's orchestra.
Big sale on women's low shoes at Shea's Shoe Store.

Dance in the open-air at Woodbury pond to-night. Carroll's orchestra.
E. Jones has returned to his home in Windsor, after spending several days with relatives in Montreal.

L. E. Jones has returned to his home in Windsor, after spending several days with friends in Barre, his former home.
Miss Jessie Belway of North Main street has returned to the city after passing a month at her former home in Barton.

Miss C. J. Rock returned to-day to her home in Hartford, Conn., after passing a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Emslie.

F. M. Scantlebury, who is representing a sand blast device that is being widely adopted in the stonehills, is staying at Hotel Barre while passing several days in the Barre granite belt on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Badger and Misses Hester and Lydia Gove were at Joe's pond in Danville yesterday. Mr. Badger is clearing land for the erection of a cottage which he plans to build next spring.

Patrick Trombley of Westerville, who was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff George L. Morris, pleaded guilty to being an habitual drunkard when arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this morning and was remanded to his berth at police headquarters when he failed to make a satisfactory disclosure. Patrick Corrigan was locked up this morning on an intoxication charge and will be arraigned to-night.

The theatrical firm of Nelson & Austin, lessees of the Barre opera house in the past year, completed their tenure of the theatre last night and handed over the keys to the aldermanic property committee to-day. John E. Hoban, who, with Mrs. Hoban and daughter, is visiting in Claremont, N. H., will not return to take possession of the theatre until to-morrow. Manager Hoban has secured the lease of the theatre for a year and is in touch with several booking agencies.

Mrs. F. C. Graves, who has been making a visit of several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. House of West street and with relatives in Williamsboro, left last evening for her home in Colorado Springs, Colo. Mrs. Graves cut short her sojourn among Vermont friends on account of the growing gravity of the railroad situation. Should the threatened tie-up develop Monday morning, she expects to be within a day's journey of her home before the deadlock arrives.

Arrangements have been completed by the Bonacore Football club for its annual corn roast and fall outing, which is to be held at Amos Hall's farm Labor day. A large motor truck has been engaged to carry the members and their guests from Barre in the forenoon and transportation will be provided for the return trip. A program of sports is planned and an enjoyable time with other forms of recreation to be indulged in is anticipated. The club's honorary patrons have donated generously to the prize list and some very interesting competitions are bound to follow. The north and party will leave Maple avenue at 10 o'clock in the forenoon and a half-hour later the south end party will leave at the car terminus. A special meeting of the Bonacore club will be held in the pavilion Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Among the guests registered at Hotel Barre last night and this morning were the following people: Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Sprague and Mr. and Mrs. Caulkins of Middletown Springs, Conn.; E. T. Lower and party of six from Austin, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maskell of New York; Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Scott of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mapples of Hartford, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Secor of Graves and H. M. Graves of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Chandler and Miss Dorothy Putnam of Randolph, F. M. Scantlebury of New York, T. A. Murphy and C. G. Newton of Burlington; A. M. Bucklin of Canaan, N. H.; Clarence Chandler of Keene, N. H.; O. M. Southey of Albany, K. L. McMahon of Newport, J. M. B. Glynn of Saxtons River, Louis N. Provost of Rutland, M. J. Daley of Burlington, C. C. Hamblett of Barton, C. A. Whalen of Burlington, Frank Gaylor of Orient Heights, Mass.

Granite manufacturers are beginning to feel the real effects of agitation over the threatened railroad strike. Yesterday foreign freight cars scattered on sidings throughout the manufacturing belt were removed, as the holding road does not care to pay the demurrage that will accumulate if unsettled conditions continue for long. In a number of instances manufacturers were on the point of loading cars, only to have them taken away before the consignment could be placed aboard. For the past two weeks shipments of finished granite over both roads leaving the city have been unusually heavy, as the manufacturers are anxious to clear their sheds of as much finished work as possible. In the Montpelier & Wells River freight yard this morning the usual weekly shipment of cattle and swine was cancelled in consequence of the order affecting shipments of livestock and perishable freight.

After shipment a distance of 12,000 miles, during which it was opened apparently to see what manner of contents it held, a circular tin box of large size in which was packed a delicious fruit cake was received to-day by Rev. James Ramage of 6 Camp street, the cake being a birthday gift from his brother, Andrew Ramage, a confectioner and baker of Wellington, New Zealand. The cake and box weighed about five pounds and the postal charges from the far-away land to Barre amounted to $1.05. The cake was long overdue, two months having elapsed since it left Wellington and a letter sent at the same time apprising the prospective recipient, having been received a month ago. The tin receptacle was airtight at the outset of the journey but the keen blade of a knife had sliced off the top of the box in order to satisfy the prying eyes of someone along the route, the paper covering having then been replaced and the package tied up with twine. It came by way of Seattle, Wash. Needless to say, Rev. Mr. Ramage was greatly pleased at the receipt of the token from his brother, whom he has not seen for many years. The latter left Scotland 25 years ago and since then has been located in Australia and New Zealand.

Dan A. Perry returned to his home on Montpelier road this morning from Brattleboro, where he has been in charge of an auction sale, which lasted through two days at the Pure Bred Live Stock Sales Co. This is the third sale that has been held by this company, a new concern that is planning on bettering the blooded stock throughout the country. The sale proved to be the most successful that has been held up to the present time, Holstein buyers coming from all over the country to invest their money for this high-blooded stock. The largest number bought by an one man was 21, sold to an Arizona buyer; 10 to a Chicago man, and others in smaller numbers to farmers in this state. New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New York and other states in the East, to the number of 125 pedigreed stock. Unusually high prices held throughout the sale; ten two-year-old heifers sold for the sum of $2390, and ten yearlings brought the high price of $2195. The best price for cows was an average of $230 a head, and a total of $2500 for six.
